

Shuttlewagon Now Offering Parts Service And Training On-line.

Source: Bill

Dated: Jun. 22, 2009

Shuttlewagon now offers more on-line customer support.

Shuttlewagon enhanced its website to offer the customer easier access to parts, service and product information. These services are being offered to allow for a quick and efficient method for customers to obtain and request both product information and services. “With such a large and diverse customer base, it has become imperative that we offer our customers options in how they access and obtain support” says Ed Harbour, President of Shuttlewagon.

Some of the new features are:

Preventive Maintenance kits for 500, 1000, and 2000 hour service.

Upgrade kits

Current available options

Operator and Service Training Request

Manuals (Parts and Service) Order Request

For more information on these new offerings visit www.shuttlewagon.com, or call (816) 767-0300.
