Nordco Service Schools Offer Machine Training Geared to Your Needs

Nordco Service Schools offer an ideal way for your mechanics and other technical employees to learn more about Nordco Maintenance-of-Way machines. Service School classes are conducted at your facility. They are typically designed for five to 20 people and last up to four days, depending upon your needs and the material covered. The machine-specific training covers repair and maintenance and machine operation. Classes are taught by skilled, experienced Nordco technical personnel. To learn more about Nordco Service Schools contact Terry Dunn at 414-766-2358. Or, send your inquiry via our website at www.nordco.com. Go to Maintenance-of-Way Machinery; then select Tech Support to find the Service School link.

Service Schools are available for a wide range of Nordco machines, including the TRIPP Tie Exchanger.
